105) Declaration of Interests

Mr A Short Item 110, Voucher 29

106) Items for City Councillors

A47 Diversion – initially caused big problems.

Asbestos removal issue – HSE contacted. PCC cannot trace where asbestos gone to but pursuing building owner.

Homeless person – concern but she doesn't want help. Monitor

Overhanging bushes etc in Crowland Road causing problems are coming from private gardens and the owners have been written to.

Frog life have now cutback vegetation overhanging the footpaths.

D Day was very well done and very well attended.

Suggestion from a resident for double yellow lines all around the school. This is a problem around all our schools and yellow lines can just disperse the problem further out. The school does continually urge parents to park considerably and walk to school when possible.

The Eyebury Road development has been called in to be considered by the committee by the Ward Councillors at the request of the Parish Council.

LP40 is still relevant to this application.

CIL and S106 funding are to be combined.

Inspection Manhole outside number 83 High Street has collapsed and is now a trip hazard – Coun Allen will report.

107) Policing

Email from PC Main re future police surgery – Tuesday 27th August 2024, 5-7pm in the Leeds Hall, Eye. Covers all 3 Wards.
